

Brand Protection Hero Award

The Michigan State University Center for Anti-Counterfeiting and Product Protection presents the Brand Protection Hero Award in recognition of significant contribution to the field of brand protection and to combating product counterfeiting. This award honors an individual who has demonstrated commitment and added value to brand protection, either by a single significant act or as a sustained effort over time, in a manner which exemplifies the highest standards of performance and integrity and advances the larger field (longevity alone does not qualify).

Eligibility: Individuals worldwide can be nominated for this award, including industry practitioners, government and law enforcement officials, academics, and others.

Winners: One winner will be chosen annually, or as decided upon by the selection committee.

Selection Committee: The selection committee will choose the winner after a review of all of the nominations. The selection committee may decide not to give the award in any given year.

Submission Process: Nominations must include:

- A letter detailing the contribution of the nominee and its significance, signed by the nominator
- Complete contact details for the nominator and nominee
- Bio of the nominee

Nominations should be submitted electronically to acapp@msu.edu by February 10, 2023. Award Timeline:

December 1, 2021	Nominations can be submitted.
February 10, 2023	All nominations are due.
On or before February 17, 2023	Committee will notify nominees of their status.
On or before February 17, 2023	Winner will be notified.
